

2009-2010 Gateway to Success Seminar Series Preview

Our monthly half-day personal and professional development seminars are designed to help participants adapt and succeed in the business environment – empowering men and women new to the workforce with practical life skills.

Seminar Topics:

- Dress to Impress
- Personal Branding – Knowing Yourself, Selling Your Skills
- Networking 101
- Interview Savvy
- Applying Online: Navigating Today's Technology
- Winning Interview Techniques
- Communications 101
- Can They Really Do That? Your Rights as an Employee (Workplace Lifecycle – from Getting to Keeping the Job)
- Personal Power: Change Your Thinking, Change Your Life
- Dollars and Sense / Getting Your Financial Checkup: Budgeting 101
- Business Etiquette: New Manners for New Times

Past Presenters Have Included:

- Tamala Edwards, Anchor, 6ABC
- Lisa Taylor Richey, The American Academy of Etiquette
- Christine Whitby, Certified FDIC Financial Literacy Instructor
- Ernestine Bustion, Citizens Bank
- Bernie Harris, Small Business Program Manager, Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Delaware Valley
- Tonia Thomas-Covington, Branch Manager, Franklin Mint Federal Credit Union
- Toni Nazzario, Director of Human Resources, Center City District
- Maribeth D. Renne, CMF, Internationally Certified Career Management Fellow and Governor, Institute for Career Certification International
- Roseann Deal, Training Officer and Certified Life Coach, USEPA Region 3
- Katie Young, Adult Student Outreach Coordinator, Community College of Philadelphia
- Jan Harris, Director, Career Services Center, Community College of Philadelphia
- Pam Jenoff, Assistant General Counsel, PECO
- Jenny Shulbank, Associate General Counsel, PECO
- Matt Gutt, Assistant General Counsel, PECO
- Lyn Kremer, Publisher, Philadelphia Business Journal
- Ursula Augustine, Founder, About pHace